Presidents report given by President Florence Charbonneau

We have a lot to go over tonight. Please read the minutes from the last meeting.

Tonight we will award our Scholarships to:

Lily Hamlin & Grant Kelly

Guest Speaker: Tristan Baker, from Isiah 117 House. Tristan explained what the Isiah 117 house is and how it came about. Children taken from their home, and away from their parents will sit in the office while a foster home can be found for them. Sometimes they sit and sleep in the office. The Isiah 117 House is set up to take the children into Isiah house, most of the children just have what they are wearing. Isiah house will provide a bed and clothing and a lot of love. Instead of staying in the office, while a foster home is found for them. We have games, TV, play yard, Isiah house makes it feel like a home. Isiah 117 House is in the process of building a home for the children. They will be having a luncheon fund raiser where a table of eight guest, (the cost of the table is free) We will have many speakers. At the end of the luncheon we will be asking for donations. There are 3 Isiah 117 Houses in Florida, we will be the 4th.

Sherry Sloan awarded for all her 29 years in helping Marion Oaks Civic Association.
